NEW
FROM CALIFORNIA

Afrikaner Politics
in South Africa, 1934-1948

by Newell M. Stultz

The years 1934-1948 demarcate an era of political co-operation between English and Afrikaans-speaking whites, ending with the dramatic victory of the Afrikaner nationalists over Smuts. The author presents a new view of this change; without ignoring the potency of the apartheid issue, he suggests a wider perspective in which Smuts' decision to enter World War II becomes the critical event. Personality and Democratic Politics

by Paul M. Sniderman

How does a personality characteristic such as self-esteem become translated into political attitudes? How do individual differences in self-esteem affect who becomes an activist or a political leader? Sniderman addresses these questions in this study, which is the first of its kind to be based on large samples of both leaders and ordinary citizens. LC: 72-87201 320 pages $12.50
